Jan. 18 - 2012 KidsWorship! Musical Kickoff

We have had a great start to KidsWorship!. Each week is just a great time of learning, singing, fellowship and worshipping our Lord through songs. We are excited to present for the first time on December 18th our KidsWorship! kids as they perform for the first time. The children have worked and continue to work so hard on their music and we are all so proud of their commitment and effort. The entire KidsWorship! team wishes your entire family a very Merry Christmas and Blessed New Year.

Dec. 18th Performance Info

The children will be performing at both 9:15 & 11:00 services. They will be singing at the front portion of the service and they may leave directly after their performance at 11:00 for those families who attend normally at 9:15. Please check your child into the DZ as you normally would on Sunday and we will be bringing them to the Worship area for their performance and when they are finished we will be returning them to the DZ. If you are leaving after they sing at 11:00 you will pick them up from the DZ area. I am asking that the children dress festively by wearing red and or green. It can be long or short sleeves. The girls may wear Christmas dresses if they wish and or skirts, jeans or slacks. I would like the boys to wear a red or green shirt and they may wear jeans, or khakis for pants whichever they like. If this is a problem please contact Kassie so we can discuss. Thank you ahead of time for your support and encouragement for your children.

Hymn Memory

We have had a great start to our hymn memorization program...every child memorized November's hymn "Nothing But the Blood". December's hymn is "Joy to the World". Please encourage them to listen to their CD's and continue to work on their hymns.
